TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscriber, after a lapse of time necessarily consumed in the preparation of his house, respectfully announces to the citizens of Alexandria, as well as the community at large, that he has taken for a term of years that noted and eligible establishment known by the name of the CITY HOTEL, and once occupied by Mr. Gadsby, whose distinguished abilities as a Publican gave it an éclat which the subscriber hopes to preserve by his unremitting exertions in affording to all those who may confer on him the favor of their patronage, genteel and comfortable accommodations. The subscriber deems it unnecessary to indicate the multiplicity of conveniences attached to the City Hotel, and will only submit a description to that portion of travellers who have so generally attested its numerous advantages.

By GEORGE WATTERSTON, Esq.
OF WASHINGTON CITY,
Author of the Lawyer and Child of Feeling.

The celebrity of this author's "LAWYER," and "CHILD OF FEELING" induced the publishers to engage in this work, and without detracting from the merits of the former, feel themselves justified in stating that his GLENCARN is superior to either. It is submitted without further recommendation, with a wish, that the American reviewers may give further encouragement to this young gentleman's endeavors to entertain, instruct and moralize his fellow citizens, in a way seemingly well calculated to attract their attention.

has received. We have sought in vain for this fact, and therefore we are at a loss to conceive how a measure calculated to close the door of accommodation and to precipitate the nation into a calamitous war, can merit the approbation of any American who feels anxious to maintain the honor and preserve the peace and happiness of his country.

Should the momentous duty of deciding upon the attitude which the United States shall assume in the present emergency, be performed with wisdom and fidelity by the agents to whom it is confided, we assure your excellency that we shall be among the first to render them the tribute of deserved praise. And should war ensue we shall cordially unite with our fellow-citizens throughout the union to meet the shock with firmness and zeal which real patriotism will dictate.

At the same time we have no hesitation to declare that we are decidedly opposed to a war, provided it can be avoided consistently with our national honor and safety.

We should consider it as one of the greatest calamities to be involved in a war with the only remaining European power which presents a barrier to that universal dominion, at which one of the belligerents manifestly aims, and to which he approaches with rapid and awful strides. It is moreover a lamentable truth, that our country is unprepared to prosecute a war with either of the belligerents, however necessary the measure may be. In all the essential means which that deplorable state requires, as well for offensive as defensive operations we are greatly deficient, but more especially in the important and indispensable requisite of money.

We are justly alarmed at the report of the secretary of the treasury, in which he discloses the melancholy fact, that we are reduced to the necessity of resorting to a loan of four millions of dollars and upwards, to defray the ordinary expenses of the general government. This communication is equally unexpected and discouraging to the people of the United States, and we sincerely hope that those who are intrusted with the superintendence of their national concerns will institute such an enquiry into the true causes of the exhausted state of the treasury, as the magnitude and urgency of the case imperiously calls for.

The several legislative matters to which your excellency has directed our attention shall engage our deliberation. And we heartily reciprocate the assurance you have given to the legislature of a faithful co-operation in every necessary measure to promote the public welfare.

New York, February 20.

LATEST FROM TONNINGEN. Yesterday arrived at this port the ship Amazon, Turner, from Tonnigena, which place he left on the 10th of January. Capt.

that the Danish government has condemned 3 American vessels and cargoes in consequence of their coming from England; that all other American vessels and property were put under arrest but not condemned, unless having come from a British port.

Capt. W. also informs, that 3 days before he sailed, the Danish government issued a decree, prohibiting the importation of cotton out of Holstein. Sugar and coffee had been prohibited by a former decree.

We further learn that the emperor Napoleon has been divorced from his wife, the empress Josephine.

The ships Indiana, Hull, of Baltimore, and Ocean, Atkins, of New York, were lost, about the 1st of Jan. at the mouth of the Eyder; most of the cargoes lost, crews saved.

The ship Three Sisters, of New York, was lost at the same place, about the 9th of Dec.

The ship Oriental, of Baltimore, was driven ashore at Helligoland, the vessel and most of the cargo lost, and an American scho. totally lost, at the same place, crew saved.

Accounts were received at Tonnigen, of the loss of 62 vessels, on that coast, within 4 months.

LATEST FROM PORTUGAL.

Yesterday arrived at this port, the ship Monticello, Kearney, from Lisbon, which port he left on the 9th of Jan.

Capt. K. informs us that the British army had left Spain, and that their headquarters were at Coimbra—that the British government were going to support a Portuguese army of 40,000 men, to be commanded by British officers—that no battles had been fought very lately between the Spaniards and French.

Capt. K. further states, that just before he sailed a British packet arrived bringing London papers to the 3d of January, some of which our informant perused, but did not find they contained any thing of importance, excepting the dismissal of Mr. Jackson, by the American government; and Mr. Canning's appointment to be first lord of the treasury, in the place of lord Mulgrave.

WEST INDIA NEWS.

Captain Gross, who arrived here yesterday from Porto Rico, informs, that intelligence reached that port about the 25th of January, stating that the British expedition from Martinique, &c. had effected a landing on the island of Guadalupe, between Bassaterre and the river Baile, having blown up, and taken several redoubts and intended to attack Bassaterre on the first of February.

Captain Mitchell, of the schooner Active, in 15 days from St. Barts. furnishes us with the following confirmation of the above paragraph, viz. That the day before he sailed news arrived there from Guadalupe, that 800 of the troops belonging to the British expedition landed in the bay of Mahon 27th Jan. drove the French before them, and took possession of that part of the island. On the 2d. of Feb. an attack was to be made on Point Petre. There were 20 sail of the line lying off the mouth of the harbor.

Extract of a letter, dated Hamburg, January 3, 1810, received per the Amazon, Capt. Turner.

"The attachment which the Danish Government laid a short time ago, on all the goods, warehousing on the Holstein territory, has for the present reduced business to a state of total inactivity. This measure has been taken in order to make further researches after English goods, and it is not doubted that the American property will be respected as before."

TO PARENTS.

The one and only cures performed by
HAMILTON'S CELEBRATED WORM DESTROYING LOZENGES.

(Selected from a very numerous list.)

ALL presented as indisputable proof of the excellence and safety of this valuable specific, for destroying worms in the human stomach and intestines.

From Mr. Benjamin Williams, No. 30, Baltimore street, two doors above south Gay-street.

I have a son six years of age, who for four years past, has been generally in a very unhealthy state, particularly in summer; frequently afflicted with alarming convulsion fits, the whole of his little frame wasted fast, his breath foetid, and almost constant itching at the nose was excited, with other alarming symptoms. During the course of the above period, the advice and attendance of three of the most eminent physicians in Baltimore were successively procured. Each of these gentlemen, in his turn, declared worms to be the cause of the child's disorder, and exhausted his skill in attempting to expel them. Pink root, steel filings, with a variety of other medicines, were administered without the least success. It was once pronounced impossible for the child to live many hours.

I had heard of your Worm Destroying Lo-zenges, but with many others did not think highly of so cheap a medicine, until a gentleman of my acquaintance (Mr. Wm. S. Moore, auctioneer) in whose family they had been used with good effect, advised me to make trial of them; I accordingly gave my son a dose agreeable to directions, which soon expelled eight large worms, some of them about eight inches in length; a second dose brought away four more of similar size; a third dose being administered, no worms appeared. The child recovered and now enjoys a good state of health.

BENJAMIN WILLIAMS.

AFFIDAVIT.

Michael Duffy, residing at No. 47, Walkes street, Fell's Point, in the city of Baltimore voluntarily maketh oath that the following statement is just and true:

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls the one five, and the other three years of age were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms. They were frequently troubled with convulsion fits, and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the first reputation, and his medicines were administered with a confidence of success, which only increased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of animation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment I was told that Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate. I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects. The eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skin and slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions; and they all speedily recovered a good state of health, which they still enjoy, though 5 months have nearly elapsed, since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole seemed to be inevitable.

ber, 1799.

TO H. LEE.

Some time last spring I was afflicted with loss of appetite, giddiness in the head, fever, and great debility, so that I could scarcely walk. In this distressing situation I took many things, but without benefit. An acquaintance in the country sent me to procure a box of Hamilton's Lozenges. Curiosity prompted me to read the directions, where I found my complaint exactly described by the doctor. I immediately sent for another box of the Lozenges, and took one dose, which brought away a large quantity of worms, and I felt greatly relieved. Encouraged by this, I took another dose, which was attended with the happiest effects, as it delivered me entirely, and am now in a better state of health than for a considerable time ago. I am now, and about the seat—convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes a privation of speech—irregular appetite, sometimes inable to eat and sometimes voracious—purging with slimy and foetid stools—vomiting—large and hard belly—pains and sickness at the stomach—pains in the head and thighs, with sickness of spirits—slow fever, with small and irregular pulse—a dry cough—excessive thirst—sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

Prevention better than Cure.

In cases of head ache, sour stomach, and for removing superfluous bile, perhaps no remedy has been discovered superior to LEE'S HAHN'S ANTIBILIOUS PILLS.
Which for 10 years past have been attended with the greatest success. The testimony of many respectable persons in our southern sea ports has been adduced who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy during the prevalence of malignant fevers, has preserved their health after experiencing alarming symptoms of fever.

Certificate of Wm. Devenny.

During the last nine years I have been in the habit of using Hahn's Antibilious Pills, prepared by the late Mr. Lee, whenever colds, head ache, or costiveness have rendered medicine necessary; in these cases a single dose has uniformly removed my head ache, and has generally been found sufficient to remove every symptom of a cold, if taken on its first appearance. Induced by the benefit I have received, I have for years past recommended them to many of my friends, and I have the pleasure to inform you, they have invariably succeeded in removing the above complaints.

Yours,

WM. DEVENNY,
